MANAGER'S REPORT

a. Communications - TownSq.io – Management reports that Townsq.io continues to be a main source of communication. There are currently 131 active users registered out of 182 Unit Owners. This equates to about 71% of owners currently registered. Additionally, within the last 30 days, only 44 users were active on TownSq. L. Mack asks management what's the big advantage of TownSq. L. Carr responds that the more owners to sign up for TownSq., the less in mailing costs that are incurred. Payments can be made, there's a homeowner directory, Governing Documents are available, and announcements can be made to the whole association. If an owner is not registered for TownSq. then a physical mailer will be sent to their mailing address. Homeowner asks why there is a charge for making an ACH payment. C. Perona explains that there is a Point-of-Sale system with using TownSq., which does charge a fee. Additionally, L. Carr advises there is another payment option called Direct Debit. The Direct Debit form is available on TownSq. A TownSq. poster will be placed near monument sign to encourage more sign ups.

ARC/LANDSCAPE/VIOLATIONS COMMITTEE REPORTS

Management reports on behalf of the ARC Committee, that YTD for 2025 there have been five (5) architectural application submittals.

P. Mack reports that there is word of a recent property purchase in Ventana Ridge by the Milne family. Concerns have been raised regarding increased traffic on Sunline Drive.

Violation Enforcement – Inspections per contract are twice a month. Any additional inspections are special billing. 2025 YTD there are a total of 38 violation letters sent. P. Mack advises that the next drive through inspection will be on Thursday, May 13, 2025.
